Attractions in Singapore

Merlion Park

The most famous Merlion statue is representing Singapore. It is a good sport for photo. You can also see the Marina Bay Sands Hotel, Singapore flyer and Theatres on the Bay.

Transport: Take MRT to Raffles Place station, it is 5 minutes walk.

Gardens by the Bay

Gardens by the Bay is an independent organisation responsible for developing and managing one of Asia's foremost garden destinations. With its award-winning cooled conservatories and iconic Supertrees, Bay South has placed Singapore squarely on the international map and is a source of national pride. Within Flower Dome, the ever-changing floral displays including crowd favourites such as Tulipmania, Orchid Extravaganza and Blossom Beats bring the beauty and diversity of the plant kingdom to life for all to enjoy.

Transport: Take MRT to Marina Bay station, transfer No.400 bus to Marina Barrage station.

Universal Studios Singapore

Universal Studios Singapore is the second of Universal Studio in Asia. It is the only movie-theme park features 24 rides and attractions in Singapore, including a pair of dueling coasters that brush past one another in several near misses in their aerial combat. There are the only Transformer Ride in there.

Transport: Take MRT to HarbourFront station, transfer Sentosa Express, get off in Waterfront station.

Singapore Zoo

Singapore Zoo has been providing exciting wildlife experiences to visitors for over 40 years. It is enjoyable attraction for family. White tigers, pygmy hippos, and even naked mole rats — get up close with this wildlife and more at Singapore Zoo. The 26-hectare wildlife park, home to over 300 species of mammals, birds and reptiles.

Transport: Take MRT to Ang Mo Kio station, transfer No.138 bus.

China Town

China Town is a subzone and ethnic enclave located within the Outram district in the Central Area of Singapore. Featuring distinctly Chinese cultural elements, Chinatown has had a historically concentrated ethnic Chinese population. As the largest ethnic group in Singapore is Chinese, Chinatown is considerably less of an enclave than it once was. However, the precinct does retain significant historical and cultural significance.

Clarke Quay

Clarke Quay is famous for its stunning waterside restaurants and exciting collection of bars and clubs, but the area has so much more to offer. The Singapore River lies at the heart of the Clarke Quay, providing the central artery for this area's thriving nightlife scene. However, the river offers visitors much more than just a picturesque spot to come for food and drinks. Boat tours are available that cruise up and down the entire length of the river, taking advantage of all the interesting sights along the way, ending up in Clarke Quay, Boat Quay and eventually the Marina Bay.
